

QUEEN MARY UNIVERSITY OF LONDON

DAY CONFERENCE, SATURDAY 15 DECEMBER 2012

Arts Two Building, QMUL, Mile End Campus, London

NEW PERSPECTIVES ON THE FRENCH REVOLUTION

9.30 INTRODUCTION

Charles Walton (Yale), Theories, Paradigms, and the French Revolution: Some Potential Ways Forward

- 9.50 Michael Sonenscher (King's, Cambridge), Politics and Economics
James Livesey (Sussex), Capitalism and the French Revolution
Charles Walton (Yale), Reciprocity in the French Revolution

11.20 REFRESHMENT BREAK

- 11.30 Mark Curran (QMUL), The Republic of Letters
Ultan Gillen (Teesside), Comparative Counter-Revolution
Marianne Elliott (Liverpool), Wolfe Tone and Becoming French
Alan Forrest (York), Were the Revolutionary Armies Revolutionary?

1.15 LUNCH

- 2.00 William Doyle (Bristol), In Search of the Girondins
Dave Andress (Portsmouth), What is a Sans-Culotte?
Colin Jones (QMUL), The Thermidoreans of 9 Thermidor

- 3.30 Peter Jones (Birmingham), Revisiting Arthur Young
Richard Whatmore (Sussex), Revolution and Empire
Alex Fairfax (QMUL/British Library), Revolution and Haiti
Richard Taws (UCL), Revolutionary Telegraph

5.15 General discussion

5.30 Drinks Reception

The Day Conference will be held in the ArtsTwo Building, Mile End Campus, Queen Mary University of London. For directions, see <http://www.qmul.ac.uk/about/howtofindus/mileend/index.html>

The conference is open to all. If you wish to attend, however, please indicate by replying to Colin Jones at c.d.h.jones@qmul.ac.uk – if possible by 12 December. This will help with logistical and catering issues.

Conference Organisers: Professor Colin Jones (History, QMUL) and Professor Jeremy Jennings (Politics, QMUL)