

Queen Mary Symposium in the Humanities and Social Sciences
The Clarendon Edition of Hobbes' Leviathan

Friday 11 January 2013

You are invited to participate in a one-day symposium organised by Richard Bourke and Quentin Skinner on the new Clarendon edition of Thomas Hobbes' Leviathan, edited by Noel Malcolm.

Speakers:

Noel Malcolm

Kinch Hoekstra
Monica Brito Vieira

David Scott
Jonathan Parkin

Venue:
G22-26
Senate House
Malet Street
London WC1E 7HU

Time:
9:30–19:30

R.S.V.P. m.bhowmik@qmul.ac.uk

PROGRAMME
The Clarendon Edition of Hobbes's Leviathan

9.30: Coffee.

Leviathan in Context:

10.00–10.35: Kinch Hoekstra (University of California, Berkeley), ‘Leviathan in its Intellectual Context’.

10.35–11.10: David Scott (History of Parliament), ‘Leviathan and the Wars of the Three Kingdoms’.

11.10–11.30: Coffee.

11.30–12.30: Discussion (Chair: Richard Bourke, Queen Mary, University of London).

12.30–2.30: Lunch.

Translation and Reception:

2.30–3.05: Monica Brito Vieira (University of York), ‘Hobbes’s Political Thought in English and in Latin’.

3.05–3.40: Jonathan Parkin (St. Hugh’s College, Oxford), ‘Hobbes and the reception of Leviathan’.

3.40–4.40: Discussion (Chair: Richard Tuck, Harvard University).

4.40–5.00: Tea.

The New Clarendon Edition:

5.00–5.40: Noel Malcolm (All Souls College, Oxford), ‘On Editing Leviathan: Some Reflections’.

5.40–6.30: Discussion (Chair: Quentin Skinner, Queen Mary, University of London).

6.30–7.30: Reception.