

Annual Symposium in the Humanities and Social Sciences
The Work of Martin E. Jay

Friday 15 June 2018, 9:30–17:00, Queen Mary University of London
Room 601, The Graduate Centre, Queen Mary University of London

9.30: Coffee.

Session One:

10.00–10.30: Emily Steinhauer (QMUL), Dialectical Imaginations: Reconsidering Martin Jay's History of the Frankfurt School, 1973–2018.

10.30–11.00: John D. Abromeit (SUNY, Buffalo), Intellectual History and Critical Theory in the Early Work of Martin Jay.

11.00–11.30: Coffee.

11.30–12.30: Discussion (Chair: Georgios Varouxakis, QMUL).

12.30–2.30: Lunch.

Session Two:

2.30–3.00: Fabian Freyenhagen (Essex), 'Anti-Semitism and the Frankfurt School: A Re-Evaluation'.

3.00–3.30: Lorna Finlayson (Essex), 'Truth and Truthfulness in Politics: Reflections on Jay's "Marx and Mendacity"'.

3.30–4.30: Discussion (Chair: Quentin Skinner, QMUL).

Concluding Remarks

4:30–5:00: Martin E. Jay (Berkeley) (Chair: Richard Bourke, QMUL)

5.00–6:00: Reception.